Folks there's a man that's Folks when I think of made me sad That ain't all he's made me mad Since I was born we've days gone by I feel so blue I want to die They make me long for been good friends But this ver-y day our friend-ship ends I'll tell what he's done and one more spree, But I'm not the man that I used to be So if you are young be give you his name For if you live long he'll treat you the same We all call him fa-ther hap-py and gay For there'll come a time you won't have your way Cause that same old dad-dy

The musical score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part includes dynamic markings such as mf and ff, and a section labeled "L.H." (Left Hand). The score is written in a key with two flats and a 2/4 time signature.

CHORUS

FATHER TIME And he gave me some blues I wish was-n't mine Those old age blues those FATHER TIME Will pre-sent you some blues, the same blues as mine Those old age blues those dot-age blues They haunt you night and day They come to you seems dot-age blues They bring you mis - er - y For they're un - kind and all at once And nev - er go a - way They're in your dreams and bring to mind What made your his - tor - y And when you think of in your wake And do just what they choose, There's no way cheat - ing them all the joys That you're a - bout to loose There's noth - ing left to do no way beat - ing them Those old age blues Those blues when they're wished on you Those old age blues Those blues
